

Donald Hooks

My Name is Donald Hooks; I have been working in the IT profession for over 20 years. I have been involved in youth sports (as a coach) with my son (baseball and football) for the last five years. I believe that sports and competition teach our children essential life skills. I am volunteering for the CPYL board to apply my technical skills, life experience, and baseball knowledge to help ensure the growth of youth sports in the community.